Receives High Honor

Ruth Peters Elected State FTA Leader

Miss Ruth Peters, an Olivet College sophomore, has been elected president of the Illinois Future Teachers of America.

Miss Peters, who comes from Ogden, Ill., was chosen for the office at the annual FTA state convention April 3 on the Southern Illinois University campus in Carbondale.

Dr. McLendon To Speak May 8 At Banquet

Dr. Hiram J. McLendon, an Olivet graduate of 1941 now teaching at Harvard University, will be the speaker for the annual junior-senior banquet May 8 at the Hotel Sherry in Chicago.

Dr. McLendon now teaches in the philosophy department at Harvard. He graduated with a bachelor of arts degree from Olivet and then attended graduate school at Boston University.

The program committee for this semi-formal occasion sponsored by the junior class consists of Prof. D. J. Strickler, sponsor, and the executive council.

College Church To Hold Ground-Breaking Service Before Commencement

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new College Church will very likely be held before the close of the current semester, Pastor L. Guy Nees has announced.

The church will vote on the matter in a few weeks and if it passes the ceremony will take place before school is out in May.

Illinois has the second highest FTA membership of the 48 states with 81 high school clubs and 14 college clubs. Olivet's chapter is the largest in Illinois with 107 members.

Approximately 300 attended the convention including four others from Olivet besides Miss Peters. They are Ruth Shearrer, local president; Don Keeling, vice-president and campaign manager for the new president; Marvin Jones, treasurer; and Professor Paul L. Schwada, sponsor. Miss Peters was nominated for her office at the state nominating committee which met last March 13 in Joliet. The other nominee was Larry Edler, a student in industrial education at Bradley University in Peoria.

The new president, who is an education major at Olivet and plans to teach business after graduation, will attend the National Education Association convention in New York City June 27-July 2. Among the speakers for this event will be the secretary of state, John Foster Dulles.

She also will attend the sectional meeting of the NEA in Springfield May 7-8, and an FTA banquet at Bradley University May 14. During her trip to New York Miss Peters also will visit Albany, N. Y., and Philadelphia.

Easter Vacation Commences Today At 12:20

Activity on the Olivet College campus will move at a slow pace from noon today until noon next Monday because of the Easter vacation.

Classes will be discontinued at 12:20 today and will not begin again until 12:30 Monday.

Most of the approximate 800 students are expected to travel to their respective homes for the five-day spring vacation.

This is the last vacation period listed on this year's college calendar. Although most Olivetians will leave the campus, several are expected to stay because of jobs and other responsibilities.

$164,000 Pledged On Library Building; $26,000 Paid

There had been $164,000 pledged toward the proposed new memorial library building on the Olivet College campus last week, President Harold W. Reed announced.

Most recent additions to the fund were from the Western Ohio District preachers' meeting where $8,000 was raised by Dr. Reed, and from the Chicago Central District preachers' meeting where $6,000 was raised by John Swearengen, field secretary.

Of the $164,000 pledged there has been $26,087.58 paid in cash. The pledged mark is $14,000 over the goal of $150,000. At least $75,000 cash must be raised before construction can begin, however.

Maybe They Have A Point

There are those who say it pays to worry — because the things they worry about seldom happen.

Student Projects Net $500; Rest Pledges

Eight road signs will be placed on all highways leading into Kankakee advertising Olivet College in a few weeks.

The Student Council's fund-raising campaign for its annual project swelled over the $700 needed to purchase the signs.

Council officers were scheduled to present the gift to the school in today's chapel service.

Funds from the car wash days, shoe-shine schemes and talent program totaled near $500; $210 was raised from subsidiary organizations of the Council, and $100 was donated by the Graydon Construction Co. of Manteno.

Sixty-two cars were washed on the first car wash day March 27 netting $95, 400 pairs of shoes were shined during the two shoe-shine days March 29-30 netting $95, and over 200 persons attended the talent program April 1 in Birchard Field House netting $250.

2nd Car Wash Postponed

Cold weather caused postponement of the second car wash day from April 3 to April 10.

Student organizations donating to the project included the Aurora, Glimmerglass, Student Council and four college classes $25 each, the Bible school and high school $10 each, and the Trojan, Spartan and Indian athletic societies $5 each.

Council Says, 'Thanks'

Olivet College's Student Council would like to express sincere appreciation to all persons who helped make the roadsign fund-raising campaign a huge success.

Names are too numerous to mention as almost 100 percent support was given by students, faculty and staff members, and persons outside the college constituency.

J. R. Gardner Resigns To Take Job At Pasadena

The resignation of Dr. J. Russell Gardner as chairman of the division of religion and philosophy at Olivet College was announced today by President Harold W. Reed.

No successor has been appointed. Dr. Gardner is leaving Olivet to become professor of religion and philosophy at Pasadena College in Pasadena, Calif. He has served at Olivet since 1946.

Gardner will replace Dr. H. Orton Wiley on the staff at Pasadena. Wiley will devote most of his time to writing and Gardner will replace him in the graduate division of the college. He will teach philosophy and Bible.

Mrs. Gardner Also Teaches

Mrs. Gardner, who also teaches in the fine arts department at Olivet, will continue her teaching at Pasadena.

22 Will Attend Career Conference

Twenty-two Olivet students plan to attend the Career Conference to be held at Lake Forest College April 27 in Lake Forest, Ill.

This conference is designed to aid college graduates in finding positions in the field of their interest.

Editorial

Vote Thoughtfully In Council Elections

In a couple of weeks the students of Olivet Nazarene College will find themselves in the midst of a heated and controversial Student Council election to decide next year's president and treasurer of the student body.

This will and should be a time of conflicting ideas and issues. If the student organization is a thinking body it will always have differences of opinion in its rank.

In the past the campaigns have been filled with spirited rallies and speeches. There has been suggested the idea that these campaigns should be controlled.

However, to many on the campus this seems paradoxical. The very word "campaign" connotes a battle or a time when conflicting ideas work against each other. Furthermore, it is doubtful if a real battle can be controlled.

In the elections it seems that the persons involved should be big enough in spirit to carry on a heated campaign and still come out as friends who are willing to work together for the good of the college student body regardless of results.

This year's Student Council leaders are proving that this is a feasible theory. President Walter Loftice and Treasurer Al Wells ran for their respective offices last spring in opposing parties. Yet, it is doubtful if there has ever been better cooperation between the persons who held these jobs.

In the elections this spring let us think clearly, both as candidates and as voters. When the Council nominates these candidates its members should lay aside personal likes or dislikes and put on the ballot those whom they think can do the best job.

On Olivet's campus there are a number of persons who would make likely candidates. However, many times the problem is not in finding qualified candidates. Often the question is, "Will a person use his abilities to get the job done after he is elected?"

If you as a student have some choice for the nominations see some of the representatives on the Council and let them know how you feel.

Then on election day, after the issues and policies have been properly weighed in a good hard and cleanly fought campaign, each Olivet student should take advantage of his right to vote for the persons whom he feels would make the best president and treasurer of the Student Council next year.

The success of next year's student activities will be determined to a large extent in how you cast your ballot in the Council elections.

He has sung with many of the leading Symphony Orchestras and Oratorio Societies in England, and also for the English Nobility, the Governor-General of Canada, at the White House, and for three years was a feature soloist on one of the leading NBC radio programs.

Nees Speaks

KEEPING VICTORY AT OLIVET

BY L. GUY NEES

Neither wishful thinking nor good intentions will stand the test of temptation and trial. This was evidenced by the failure of the disciples at the time of our Lord's crucifixion. The word says, "They all forsook Him and fled." They failed miserably.

We do not want to follow them. But wait! Before we are too hard on them, let us remember a few things. Let us ask ourselves a few questions. Can we imagine a situation more discouraging or trying? Have we ever faced anything as they did? Would we have stood where they fell? Perhaps not, but I think we have a bit of insight into the reasons for their failure.

Judas of course was given over to greed and perhaps dishonesty. James and John were concerned with place seeking. Peter was warming himself by the enemies' fire and we have no indication that the others were any more faithful. This should serve as a warning to us.

What does it take to keep the victory? A simple answer that may at first seem inadequate — being sincerely devoted to God. Sometimes it takes tests like the disciples passed through to sound the depth of sincerity of our souls.

Even in times of failure we can benefit. We can acknowledge our error, repent of our wrongdoing and come back as Peter and the other ten did. The danger is that we shall go away from Christ as Judas, never to return.

The weakness of the disciples was evidenced during this experience but they returned to Christ, waited in the upper room — were filled with the Holy Spirit and from then on were able to stay victorious. Their devotion to God was tested and then refined.

It is our sincere, whole-hearted devotion to God that means more than anything else. After the resurrection Jesus questioned Peter very thoroughly about his love. Three times He plumbed the depths of his soul by asking, "Lovest thou Me more than these?"

This love was present but not perfect until the day of Pentecost.

This is the way to victory at Olivet or anywhere — a Pentecost experience.

Kerns Elected Leader Of Ministerial Group

Ron Kerns, a junior, has been elected president of the Ministerial Fellowship for the next school year.

Kerns, who was chosen for his new post at a meeting of the club March 20, will succeed Gene Fuller as president of the band. Fuller is to become pastor of Streator, Ill. Church of the Nazarene next Sept. 19.

Other officers elected were Gordon Dawes, vice-president; Jack Barnell, second vice-president; Evelyn Craig, secretary; and Cal Mathews, treasurer.

Fuller reported that approximately $1,100 has passed through the hands of the organization's treasurer this year. This amount was raised from dues, a special chapel offering, pledges from the club's members and other gifts.

$800 Spent At Braidwood

A total of $800 of this money was spent in organizing the church at Braidwood early in February. The church, now under the leadership of Woody Leezer, a former student, is averaging 20 in Sunday school each week, Fuller reported.

The remaining $300 was spent on the four breakfasts, the banquet and the Tip-Off parade float it sponsored.

A constitution has been drawn up by the band which calls for an annual project similar to the Braidwood church.

High School Names Valedictorian, Salutatorian

Katherine Beegle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey M. Beegle, New York City, has been named valedictorian of the Academy and Linda Cleveringa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Cleveringa, Grand Haven, Mich., salutatorian.

Along with her activities with the Kingswood Band, Trio, and Radio Chorus, Katherine is a member of the Olivet Orchestra, Indian Society, and was elected secretary-treasurer of the senior class.

Along with the college commencement exercises, the Academy Seniors will graduate May 27. Both girls plan to attend Olivet next fall.

Musical Glimmers

from Goodwin

BY ANITA RICHARDS

Once again the Orpheus Choir has completed its annual tour, ministering in music to several thousands of Nazarenes and friends in twelve churches in the Central Educational Zone.

The outstanding programming of the repertoire and the truly inspired conducting of Dr. Walter B. Larsen made this tour undoubtedly the most memorable in the choir's 22 years of existence.

This writer wishes that every faculty and student could have listened in on at least one of the pre-concert prayer meetings. Choir members were united in one purpose — to glorify God in each presentation, and the Lord graciously honored with His presence, blessing the hearts of both choir and audience.

High point in each concert was the dramatization of "Jesus Lover of My Soul," the most famous of the 6,500 hymns composed by Charles Wesley. The script, depicting the regeneration and sanctification of John and Charles Wesley, was written by Rev. T. T. Liddell, and to Paul Coleman Jr. goes the credit for the arrangement of this hymn for the choir.

Millard Reed, as narrator, was outstanding and musical sound effects were furnished by Prof. Kenneth Bade on the organ and Lyn Van-Aken on the timpani.

Fitting climax to this impressive number was "Amazing Grace," arranged by Richard Shores especially for the Orpheus Choir and instrumental ensemble.

From the opening strains of Alma Mater" at Elkhart, Ind., to the final echo of "Dry Bones" in Adrian, Mich., the tour was a true expression of what "Our Olivet" represents — "Education With A Christian Purpose."

Frosh-Soph Party Committees Listed

The annual freshman-sophomore party given by the freshmen in honor of the sophomores will be held May 8.

Gene Phillips, freshman class president, has formed the following committees to plan this annual event. Those serving on the program committee are Keith Owens, chairman, Gene Foiles, Mary Jo Cannon and Monty Kennedy. The food committee is made up of Clara May Riddle, chairman, Janet Storer and Nella Whittaker. Norm Barnes will be in charge of the decoration committee and those helping him will be Jack Harris, Darlene Barker and Bud Polston.

2nd Annual Series

Dr. Jessop To Begin Lectures Monday

Dr. Harry E. Jessop will deliver his second annual series of Jessop Lectures at Olivet April 19 to April 30. The lectures will be presented daily Monday through Friday, and students attending may receive one hour college credit.

In addition to the lecture series, Dr. Jessop will be speaking in the chapel services each morning beginning Wednesday, April 21.

Dr. Jessop comes from England where his excellent work has established him as one of the most outstanding British expositors of the Bible. He served as a professor, dean, and president of the Chicago Evangelistic Institute, and at present is engaged as president of a Bible college in Florida.

Those who were privileged to attend the lectures last year were thrilled with the depth and thoroughness of Dr. Jessop's presentation of Biblical truths. His method of exposition is designed to enrich the lives of his hearers in both Christian experience and scriptural understanding.

Olivet's president, Dr. H. W. Reed, is emphatic in his recommendation of Dr. Jessop and wishes to encourage all who possibly can to attend this lecture series.

Mrs. Powers Reported Recovering Nicely

Mrs. Hardy C. Powers of Dallas, Tex., is reported progressing very well following her recent operation. She is convalescing at home, but will be under close observation of her doctor for the coming six weeks.

Both she and Dr. Powers plan to be here at the college next month for the graduation of their son, Hardy Powers Jr.

Dr. Powers was to have been the spring revival preacher but his wife's illness forced him to cancel. He will be the commencement speaker.

Hendersons Visit In Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Henderson went to Toledo, Ohio, this past weekend to visit Mrs. Henderson's parents. John Henderson, who is home for spring vacation from Greenville College, accompanied his parents on their trip.

Talks About God's Dream

145 Hear Mendell Taylor Speak At Ministerial-Platonian Feast

At least 145 persons attended the Olivet Ministerial-Platonian annual banquet, featuring speaker Dr. Mendell Taylor, dean of Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Mo., March 27 in Miller Dining Hall.

Gene Fuller, president of the Ministerial Fellowship, opened the night's program with an address of welcome to the group.

During the meal of fried chicken, dinner music was furnished by Anita Richards on the violin and Phyllis Blackwell at the piano.

Before the introduction of the speaker, a fellowship quartet provided special music after which Dr. Taylor presented his address.

Taylor chose for his text Colossians 1: 17-18 and spoke on the subject "Helping Make God's Dream Come True." During the course of the sermon he pointed out that God is the Head of the universe and that He has had a dream for mankind since the fall of the human race. To fulfill this dream, God needed a body. First of all, Jesus Christ took upon Himself the form of a human body and died on the cross for our sins, thus helping to make the dream come true. Dr. Taylor told the group that in the past God has had many saints who have helped to fulfill God's dream.

The climax of the sermon brought forth an inspirational thought that we as Christians should continue to be the body of Christ through serving, thus "Helping To Make God's Dream Come True."

Kelley Prayer Chapel Revamped With $562

BY DARRELL HOLLAND

A "new look" has been given Kelley Prayer Chapel with 14 gallons of paint and 150 man hours being used to redecorate the 7,000 square feet of surface in the auditorium.

The work was directed by Student Prayer Band President Millard Reed.

Included in the overhaul of the meeting place for student prayer band was painting, new drapes and new platform furniture. Total cost was $562 with the funds raised from personal contributions.

Specifically $281 was spent for material, $70 for drapes, $65 for paint, $140 for the new furniture and $6 for miscellaneous expenses.

The improved chapel was scheduled to be dedicated Tuesday.

Workers Listed

Persons who did the work, Reed reported, are Cal Mathews, Harry Romeril, Randy Smith, John Petrie, Bob Agan, Chuck Taylor, Jim Stark, Chuck Hasselbring, Barbara Reed, Mrs. Wanda Donson, Evelyn Craig and Hilda Hurdle. The women worked primarily on making the drapes.

GRANT ANALYZES WORLD POWERS HERE MARCH 26

Donald Grant, a native of England and a world traveler and lecturer, spoke at Olivet College March 26 in the morning chapel service on the general topic of "Germany."

He pointed out that the Germans are an aggressive, enterprising people who have accomplished much economically since the end of World War II.

In the evening session Grant spoke to a small but enthusiastic crowd on the subject "Dynamic Forces Transform the World." He took a synoptic view of world events and from it drew generalizations which indicate what turn of events can likely be expected on the international level.

See U. S. Getting Stronger

These were among the more important trends Grant saw. The United States and the Western countries are growing stronger at a faster pace than Russia and the Communist nations; the United States is the strongest country in the world and therefore a world leader; and the issues which exist between the United States and Russia are becoming clearer.

SPOTLIGHT

BY MILLARD REED

The recent project to place signs on the highways around Kankakee has been a success. The planning was efficient and the co-operation wonderful. As a result of the concern of the students eight signs will stand to advertise our school, telling passersby of our purpose and directing them to our campus.

I am sure we were all gratified by the general feeling upon our campus concerning this project. This concern caused us to realize the importance of advertisement. I trust this concern is of such depth that we shall be made to realize that we ourselves are moving, living pieces of advertisement.

The stand that we take or may not take will unavoidably speak for or against our school. The attitude we take on the job or the way we conduct ourselves in affairs of business presents a more glowing message than the most brilliant sign. The way in which we represent Christianity to the observers of our lives will either point them to Christ or will give them improper instruction which will lead them to a destination of destruction.

The "sign project" has been a success, but the responsibility of 800 students cannot be and will not be shifted to eight signs. Our lives must still represent our college and our Christ. May each of us, regardless of where we are, be good advertisement.

I would like to thank and congratulate Cal Mathews for the fine job he did in conducting Student Prayer Band during Orpheus tour. Both I and the Prayer Band are grateful.

Dots ... from DAVE

By Dave Miller

Jim Mitchell recently stood on a weighing machine, in the light of the lingering day; a counterfeit penny he dropped in the slot, and silently stole a weigh.

Our hats are off to the fellows of the fourth floor of Chapman Hall for their recent victory in the single elimination dormitory basketball tournament staged in the gym last week.

The dorm tourney went off in splendid manner, despite some numerous incidents the first night, including Prentiss Tomlinson's two points in the WRONG basket, and Max Durbin's sudden fall over his own two feet.

Boys of the fourth floor included Gene Phillips, Ray Reglin, Bob Davis, Glenn Leib to name a few of the standouts. Reglin and Don Brewer coached the victors, with Al (Chief) Neilson guiding the third floor runners; Wayne Ingalls on the second floor and Don Watson, the first.

The Men's Dormitory Association sponsored the tourney.

The ping pong tourney is still progressing in slow fashion. Two upsets featured last week's play, with seeded Jim Mitchell (last year's runnerup) losing to Gordon Humble, and seeded Prentiss Tomlinson losing to Paul Stinnette, who, we believe may be the dark horse of the tourney—and not because he beat us 2-0.

The girls' softball season will begin Tuesday, April 20, following our five-day Easter vacation, it was announced by athletic director Elmore Vail. Mrs. Gayl Baum will be in charge of the activities, and here we should congratulate her on her fine job of handling the girls' volleyball season.

Incidentally, Jackie Spencer, Beverly Hickler and Shirley Strickler were the coaches of their respective volleyball teams.

Several former outstanding Olivet athletes are doing work in the service of Uncle Sam. We understand last year's intramural director and Trojan head coach, Cal Johnson, is playing ball in Texas along with attending medical school.

George Rose, 1952 intramural director and another Trojan, is stationed in Maryland, as is Jim Hogan, former top notch Indian baseballer Don Bell, an Indian a year ago, is in Ft. Knox "Cup" Richards, knuckleball artist (?) of the Indians, is in the land of Korea.

The bitter rivalry between the Indians and Trojans is slowly reaching a climax following the completion of the three round volleyball tournament last Thursday.

It was the initial time volleyball had been staged at Olivet society-wise and it was a huge success.

The Trojans captured the men's crown with five set victories and one lone defeat to the Spartans, 14-16, 15-10, and 11-15. The Spartans split even at 3-3, and the Indians won only one of six sets.

However, the Indian women kept the Redmen hopes alive by running through their six-game span undefeated. The Spartans took runner-up here again with a 2-4 rating, and the Trojan women were able to snare only one victory in six.

Leading Players Listed

Pacing the champion Trojan men were Don Williamson, Bud Polston, Smiley Cummings, Jim Smith, Glenn Leib, Lyle Schoenwetter, Jim Mitchell, and coaches Bob Meyer and David Lee Boice — to mention a few. The Spartans mainly consisted of John Hanson, Chuck Taylor, Ron McQueen, Merlin Demaray and Bob Stevens.

Included on the Indians were Chuck McCullough, Gene Phillips, Rufus Sanders, Randy Smith, Clarence Fukushima, Bob Crabtree and Frank Garton.

Pacing the champion Indian women were Norma Blochberger, Eleanor Vest, Shirley Strickler, Barb Strong and Rubalee Meyer to mention a few. Trojan standouts were Betty Steele, Hilda Hurdle, Ruth Peters, May Jo Cannon, and Rosella Scott. For the Green women, it was Jackie Spencer, Marilyn Mattax, Wilma Monce, Marge DeBooy, Marilyn Starr and Betty Botner.

Results To Decide School Trophy; Reds, Trojans Close

Baseball will officially take the spring sport spotlight next Tuesday following Easter vacation.

Due to the inclement weather, and volleyball and swimming conflicts, athletic director Elmore Vail decided to postpone the earlier scheduled date.

From here, things look close for the three societies. Naturally, baseball will decide the all-school trophy between the rival Indians and Trojans.

Wendy Parson's Redmen will be strong on the mound with sophomores Fred Fortune and Bob Squires and catcher Bob Crabtree, all regulars last season. Bob Rector also will add punch hitting and pitching.

Freshmen include Lauren Larsen, Ray Reglin, Darrell Trotter and Gene Phillips.

Dave Miller will coach the Trojans. Depended on for mound service for the Blue are Don Brewer and Jim Smith, two untried freshmen. Other freshmen include Tom Murray, Art Burris, Smiley Cummings, Vern Fischer, Bud Polston and others untested. Returnees include Jim Mitchell, Hal Rose, Don Keeling, David Boice and Don Williamson.

Spartans Favored

The favored Spartans gained that role through the mound toiling last spring of sophomore Dave Brown, who won five of six games on the hill for the champs.

Brown, along with Don Watson, Ron McQueen, Bob Stevens, Don Mathews and Chuck Taylor will probably hold the key to Spartan endeavors along with freshmen John Hanson, Merlin Demaray, Dick Intyre, Kyle Greene, Paul Lawrence and Frank Hallum.

Indians Win Swimming Meet; Fukushima Season's High Scorer

The Indian aquamen glided through to three consecutive victories in the 1954 Olivet intramural swimming season.

In the three meets, the Indians were easy victors, excepting last Wednesday's "squeeze," 43½ to 40½, over their arch rival Trojans.

The Redmen took the meet on the final event—winning the 200-yard relay by about a foot, with anchor man Clarence Fukushima nosing Trojan anchor man Wendy Kizzee.

The Indians snared the initial meet March 24 compiling 44 points to 22 for the Trojans and 13 for the Spartans, the Green's only meet entrance. On March 31, the Indians swept over the Trojans handily, 50-34.

Fukushima Top Scorer

Little Clarence Fukushima, the likeable 5-6 Hawaiian, was the top scorer of the three meets, compiling 42 points, excelling in the 50-yard free-style, 50-yard breast-stroke, and diving. Incidentally, the diving was won by three different individuals.

Dave Brown of the Spartans grabbed 10 of the Spartans' 19 points in the first meet in taking the event, while Fukushima was the victor a week later, and Dale Metcalf of the Trojans conquered the event last Wednesday.

Scoring:

Name — Society	Points
Clarence Fukushima (I)	42
Dale Metcalf (T)	33
Wendy Kizzee (T)	30
John Keech (I)	28
Dave Brown (S)	12
Milt Houghtaling (I)	11
Bud Polston (T)	7½
Bob Standiford (I)	6
Moe Hughes (I)	4
Paul Belt (T)	2
Gordon Humble (T)	1
Dick Lambert (S)	1
Paul Komori (I)	1

What's This?

By Bill Thorpe

Dug-Out Dope

BY MAXINE DAWSON

When studies lag, when your free time (and sometimes class time) is taken up with tennis, baseball practice, or just talking on the Ad Building steps — then you know spring has at last come to Olivet's campus.

I wonder if it's the spring weather or something else that has caused Dave Priest to develop a romantic interest ... could it be the same thing for Dick Fry, too? ... It must be catching ... There seems to be a few more happier-looking people since Orpheus Choir has returned ...

We're wondering if Gene Houchin stays awake at night thinking up those bright things to say or do they just come naturally? Dave Boice makes such frequent trips to Ohio. We wonder if he has an interest back home or is it that he just enjoys the ride?

HAVE A HAPPY EASTER VACATION EVERYBODY!

Poetry Speaks—

FEVER'S FIRST EPIDEMIC

BY JOE HERDLER

It's April, the warm days have come back again.
And a smell in the air says we're gonna have rain.
There's a brand-new green carpet up the side of the hill,
And the creek in the meadow has started to fill.

The apple-tree's branches are white with their bloom.
And a breeze full of perfume has flooded the room.
There's a boy and girl walking away down the road,
And their big picnic basket seems hardly a load.

The birds have been singing their best all day long,
'Til it seems the whole world is alive with the song.
It's still light, yet my eyes have grown heavy somehow.
There's work to be done . . . but perhaps not just now.

Seniors Give Juniors Party At YMCA

Words and music of the popular song "Y'All Come" greeted approximately 125 persons as they entered the Crows Nest of the Kankakee YMCA April 3 for the senior-junior party.

The annual event, sponsored by the seniors in honor of the junior class, featured Johnny Agatone's Orchestra of Kankakee. Its personnel are Johnny Agatone, accordionist; Lowell Voss, drummer; and Danny Baker, guitar player and vocalist.

The group left the campus about 7 p. m. for the destination with most of the approximate 100 juniors not knowing where the party was to be held. Theme of the event was western or hillbilly. A mock name given the auditorium was the "Class of 54-55 ranch."

Other Items On Program

Besides the music of the guest musicians, other items on the program included a "Ma and Pa" act by Jack Jones and Marilyn Starr, and a reading entitled "What It Was, Was Football" by Hugo Brooks.

Presented for comment were Don Carpenter, junior president; D. J. Strickler, junior faculty advisor; and Jim Sheckler, senior president. Leo Slagg, senior advisor, was not present because of illness. Darrell Holland was master of ceremonies.

After the entertainment refreshments including barbecue, a coke and cookies were served.
